

LEVEL ONE

1. In about an hour I will bike to see my brothers.
2. After that, my father, mother, and teachers will go in a boat.
3. My sister and friends and some other boys will swim along to meet us.
4. The children said that it was very cold this morning.
5. Every house must have a door.
6. Which child works well at school?
7. After school the three boys played with the bats and balls.
8. My little brother put his books away before he went to bed.
9. The teacher took her children to look at the trees.
10. The girls were told to find their toys and bring them home.
11. The men got into four large boats to bring them over the water.
12. The girl called out to her cat to come and have some milk.
13. His mother asked the two friends if they had heard the baby cry.
14. The boy made five new houses for his dogs.
15. We always make more runs with the best bat.
16. I read the book and then put it back on the table.
17. One day our pussy cat ran away.
18. The man wanted to write many letters each day.
19. The old dog didn't do much work.

20. Today our mothers should be going to town.
21. Your friend comes to play at my place.
22. I did not like the hats I saw.
23. We had a few days by the sea last summer.
24. My mother makes me look after my own room.
25. Here are the trees that we want to dig up.
26. Don't you know what the time is?
27. The dogs just take things they want to eat.
28. Once a week I help him with his tables.
29. At night he would close the door.
30. I'm coming down to give you most of my pretty hats.
31. His toy cars could run for a long time.
32. These cats must have something to eat or they will not live.
33. In two weeks my brother will be five years old.
34. I found my red bike again next morning.
35. I am happy to see the white snow come so soon.
36. Tell me who gave you your bat and ball.
37. Our sister plays with her dolls until it is bedtime.
38. Here are lots of nice new toys.
39. She also wants to know the way to school.
40. His cat loves getting up on beds.

41. I hope it will be fine, as I want to be off to town.
42. He reads better than I thought he would this year.
43. We know how that man digs.
44. The good girl takes the right books home with her.
45. The others are going out in all that rain.
46. Our teachers say we can have another hit with the bat and ball.
47. Any doll will be sure to please the poor girl.
48. I had better put my name in my books now.
49. Her mother looked to see where the letter had come from.
50. The boys had looked at a lot of trees around the school.