

LEVEL THREE

1. I was left at an early age to look after the babies while they were asleep.
2. I used to be frightened when I thought of awful ghosts and giants.
3. The kittens were asleep in a basket in the bedroom.
4. Other animals made noises in the garden.
5. The fifteen footballers enjoyed the game on our field.
6. The biggest fox was carrying a chicken in its mouth.
7. During one radio lesson we heard some English children singing.
8. Grandfather was surprised when he pulled a giant fish up on to the beach.
9. The ladies were afraid to cross the broken bridge.
10. The children were interested to see inside the Maori house.
11. The cowboy had to drive the cattle into a large field.
12. The boys had to build a strong fence around the bunny's cage.
13. Anyone who arrived after breakfast had to help digging ditches.
14. Buses filled with people ran to the busy business area of the town.
15. Deep in the desert nothing but daisies and date palms grow.
16. The pussies loved to hide themselves among the boxes.
17. We moved deep into the forest to hunt the frightened deer.
18. The log truck was moving slowly as it went around the corner.
19. My parents chose jellies and ice-cream for their parties.

20. Someone was standing alone by the telephone waiting for it to ring.
21. The farmer was busy giving the ponies some sugar.
22. Maori explorers climbed the highest mountain.
23. The smallest pig lay sleeping in the hay.
24. Somebody fetched a bag to cover the fruit.
25. A free litre of petrol was given to the lady.
26. We're hoping to have a wonderful time visiting the zoo.
27. My tooth has become rather sore during this month.
28. The butter was placed in a cool hole in the earth.
29. A kilo of oranges cost one dollar and two cents.
30. The captain carried the bananas to his ship.
31. The doctor who worked in the hospital hurried inside.
32. The elephant was dressed in the largest coloured cloth I have ever seen.
33. The women wished to bake a Christmas cake.
34. The lovely princess married the oldest prince.
35. We'll eat our potatoes and vegetables while sitting on the porch.
36. The puppies raced quickly along the sand with a rubber ball.
37. Men in the army spent fourteen days camping on the island.
38. The pony was taught to stand and nod its head.
39. The lorries are carrying mail and parcels to the station.

40. The kite was beginning to move higher in the sky.
41. We would slide down a steep clay bank on a board.
42. The cook did some baking in the electric stove in the kitchen.
43. Everyone had to bring a knife, fork and spoon to the picnic.
44. They enjoyed listening to the stories of travel in other countries.
45. We said goodbye to the soldier who was leaving New Zealand to go to England.
46. The nurse helped to carry the boy who had glass in his feet.
47. The shopkeeper sold jam and jelly to the lady.
48. The group sang their favourite song to the other classes.
49. The French team was invited to meet the Queen as they passed through London.
50. I had to pay six cents for the pencil and pen which I lost at Christmas.
51. Thirty thousand parents listened to the singing of the children.
52. It took a litre of paint to finish the job above the north wall.
53. Tonight after tea I saw a star shooting across the sky.
54. The puppies' master threw rope in front of the cattle to frighten them.
55. The glasses fell with a crash when the rat frightened the cook.
56. The lovely lady laughed at the boys' plan to hide the picnic basket.
57. There were cries of joy when they flew the flag in the centre of town.
58. The prettiest hen helped herself to the fat juicy worms.

59. The Queen seemed to be laughing as she stood on the huge stairs.

60. Do not throw away the ticket as you may need it if you have won the prize yourself.